Susan "Sue" Desposito

Susan "Sue" Desposito has been a dedicated participant in the Iron Bridge Recovery Center alumni program since completing her treatment on April 11, 2024. Since joining the team in April 2025, I have greatly benefited from her active involvement, which has significantly helped me connect with other alumni. Sue is deeply committed to her own recovery journey and extends her support to others by facilitating a women's recovery group every Tuesday morning at the Goochland/Powhatan Community Services Board (CSB). Her role as a peer is particularly meaningful; she is currently undergoing Peer Recovery Specialist (PRS) training to enhance her ability to assist others in their recovery processes. Sue's dedication to giving back what was so generously provided to her underscores her commitment to the recovery community.
